

Kazakh Gala Concert

Dinner

*Monday 7th December 2009, 9 pm - 11 pm
The Old Library, Guildhall, Gresham Street, London EC2*

Ladies and Gentlemen

Kazakh Gala Concert Organising Committee together with Kazakh-British Chamber of Commerce and with the support of ENRC plc, Private Equity Group and Blacksand Partners would like to invite you to the Kazakh Gala Concert Dinner, where the business and political leaders of Kazakhstan and Great Britain are invited after the Annual Kazakh Gala Concert.

This event is by invitation only and an RSVP is essential.

Type of food: Fine dining three course meal with wine
(vegetarian option available).

Irina Suslova, +44 (0) 207 491 7199, irina.s@kbcc.org.uk.

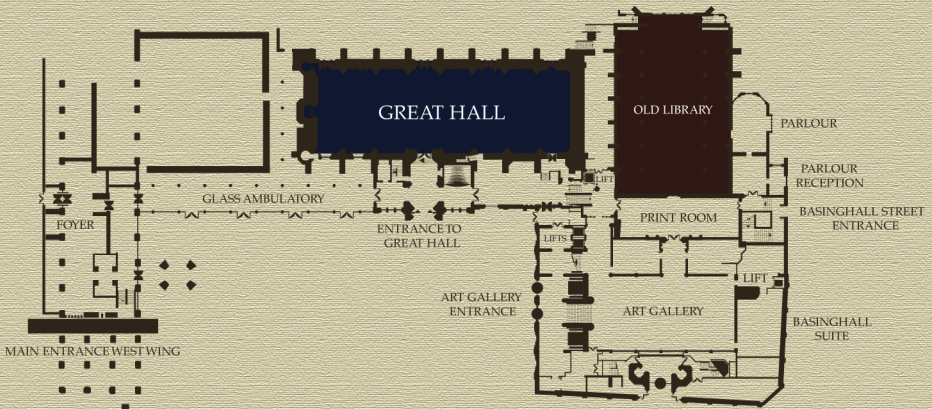

Kazakh Gala Concert

Dinner

The Old Library

The Old Library was designed by Sir Horace Jones and built in 1870. Fitted with handsome oak bookcases it housed a collection of over 40,000 volumes, MSS and maps. This collection was moved to the newly constructed west wing and the Museum of London in 1974. To the north of the room is a magnificent stained glass window depicting William Caxton.

■ Great Hall

■ Old Library